DATE FILED: 12/2/19

After consultation with the parties, the following scheduling order is adopted by the Court pursuant to Rule 16 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure:

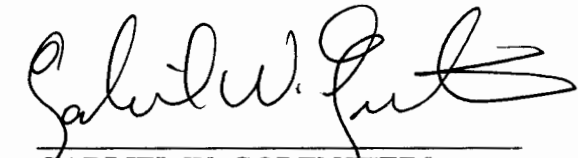

1. All requests for documents and interrogatories shall be served by January 17, 2020.
2. All non-expert discovery shall be commenced in time to be completed by May 15, 2020.
3. Disclosure of expert evidence as required by Rule 26(a)(2)(A), (B) or (C), and Rule 44.1, including the identities and reports of experts, if any, will be made by May 15, 2020.

The disclosure of expert evidence intended by a party solely to contradict or rebut expert evidence on the same subject matter disclosed by the opposing party shall be made by May 29, 2020.

4. Depositions of experts shall be completed by June 12, 2020.
5. Any request for permission to file a summary judgment motion shall be filed by June 12, 2020.
6. All discovery (including requests for admission and any applications to the Court with respect to the conduct of discovery) must be initiated in time to be concluded by the deadline for all discovery. Any application for an extension of the time limitations herein must be made as soon as the cause for the extension becomes known to the party making the application and in accordance with this Court's Individual Practices. Any application not in compliance with this paragraph will be denied. To the extent a party expects to produce electronically stored information, the parties shall promptly discuss the protocols for the search and review of such material.
7. All applications to the Court must comply with this Court's Individual Practices, which are available through the Clerk's Office or at:
<https://nysd.uscourts.gov/hon-gabriel-w-gorenstein> . Discovery applications -- that is, any application or motion pursuant to Rules 26 through 37 or 45 -- not only must comply with ¶ 2.A. of the Court's Individual Practices but also must be made promptly after the cause for such an application arises. In addition, absent extraordinary circumstances no such application will be considered if made later than 30 days prior to the close of discovery. Untimely applications will be denied.

SO ORDERED.
